Did you know?

The Savuti region is famous for its shifting river channel, which mysteriously dries up and reappears over decades, dramatically altering the landscape and wildlife movement patterns.

Botswana: Savuti & Khwai Safari

Duration: 5 Days / 4 Nights

Day 1: Chobe National Park Arrival & First Game Drive

Arrive at Kasane International Airport and take a scenic flight to Savute Safari Lodge. After settling into your luxurious suite, enjoy afternoon tea on the open-air patio before embarking on a thrilling game drive. As the sun sets, return to the lodge for a gourmet dinner under the stars.

Day 2: Chobe National Park Exploring Savuti

Start your day with an early morning game drive, witnessing predators and vast herds of wildlife. After a delicious brunch, unwind at the lodge before another game drive in the late afternoon. Conclude your day with a sumptuous dinner, sharing stories around the firepit.

Day 3: Khwai Conservancy Arrive at the Okavango

After your final morning game drive in Savuti, enjoy brunch before transferring via scenic flight to Khwai Airstrip. Upon arrival at Machaba Camp, settle into your elegant safari tent. In the afternoon, explore the area on an exciting game drive before a magical bush dinner.

Day 4: Khwai Conservancy Mokoro & Walking Safari

Start your morning with a peaceful mokoro excursion, gliding through the Okavango Delta's waterways. After brunch, relax before an afternoon walking safari or game drive. As the sun sets, enjoy an intimate dinner in the wilderness, listening to the sounds of the bush.

Day 5: Khwai Conservancy Sunrise Safari & Departure

Wake up early for a final game drive or bush walk. After a farewell brunch, transfer back to Khwai Airstrip for your flight to Maun International Airport, concluding your unforgettable Botswana safari experience.
